20th June 2018

Dear Parents.

Year Four Performance – 'Treachery at Traitors' Quay'

The children in Year Four are now busy rehearsing their musical play, 'Treachery at Traitors' Ouay'.

All being well, they will be ready to perform for their parents and friends on

Tuesday 10th July at 6.00 pm and Thursday 12th July at 6.00pm

Tickets, of course, are free of charge and can be ordered using the reply slip below and returning it to your child's class teacher. To meet fire regulations, we can only issue a limited number so, to ensure a fair distribution, we shall initially limit the number available to four per family (e.g. four for one performance or two tickets for each). We require you to list the people attending so that we can check them off on arrival.

As disturbances in the audience by younger children can cause such a distraction to those performing, we discourage you from bringing children below school age unless you can guarantee that they will sit quietly or that you will take them out of the hall if they start to disturb the performance. They will also need an individual ticket, even if you would like to seat them on your lap. Unfortunately, we will not have room for buggies, prams, etc. in the Hall.

If you would like more than four tickets, please list up to two extra people that you would like to come on the reply slip below. From Tuesday 3rd July, if there are tickets remaining, we will allocate one additional ticket and then possibly another additional ticket from the list. If necessary, these will be drawn from a hat. You should receive your first allocation of tickets within 48 hours of the return of your slip. If you do not, please contact us immediately. Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely,

Stuart Evans
